Craft Show

It was a great weekend event. There were 1069 people in attendance. We had 67 vendors this year, 22 of them were new.

Cakes and Smoothies

Cakes are $15 and Smoothies are $2.

Guest Speaker

Shirley Stone was our guest speaker. She is a researcher who finds the lost soldiers who were killed in action. For her research efforts she was given the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medallion.

In the presentation she gave us she informed us in her latest research. She recently found 15 Canadian Soldiers who were POW's (Prisoners of War) after D Day.

The soldiers were from different platoons. 6 were from the North Nova Scotia Highlanders, 8 were from the Royal Winnipeg Rifles, and 1 was from The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa.

She got in contact with the families and told them about her research about their loved ones. She and the families went to Saint George- Des- Grosilliers on June 30. This is where the family met for the first time and had a tour. Each of the families had a chance to pay their respects and visit the grave sites of the soldiers.
