Happy Dollar

International Vice President Dr. John was happy for three things

- Home Club Banner
- Because of the Eliminate Project, there are now seven countries that are free of Neo-Natal Tetanus. That is equivalent to ten million babies.
- 68 Main St is SOLD!

Gary Guyitt was happy for enjoying the speech International Vice President Dr. John gave at he Interclub meeting at he Middlesex London club.

Dr. Rachel Simmons was happy for the pictures she has taken for the club, and her successful project at he Medical Center.

Alan Ure was happy for the Inductions that were being held that evening.

Jenny Dunlop was happy for the good time she had at her place on Friday night with the Key Club.

Dave Vaughan was happy that so many Key Club members were going to the DLTC on Saturday.

Debbie Button was happy that this was her first meeting since she was President that she did not have to take notes.

Dennis Vaughan was happy for the visit he took back to St. John's and for his return back to Ridgetown his new home and new friends.

Adam was happy to be at the meeting.

Guest Speaker

Doug Taylor was our guest speaker for the night. Doug is our Lt. Governor for Division 4. His home club is the Middlesex London Club. The Middlesex London Club has had the Lt. Governor banner for the past 5 years. Ridgetown is considered the "R-Word" in his club.

Doug spoke first about himself. He is married with 2 grown daughters. He is a very huge fan of the London Knights, so he and his wife are hosting a player at their home. Bo Horvat is a local Rodney boy.

At the Robart's Golf Tournament Doug happen to have his glasses break and was going to have to sit out of the tournament, but Dr. John told him to sit tight because there would be someone coming that could fix his glasses. That person was Craig Mitton. Thank you Craig!

It was nice to hear that we are so well respected in our Division.

Please don't forget to bring the budgets to the next meeting. No Guests please.

Robart's Dinner Invitation if interested please contact President Brad.
