Happy Dollar

Brandon Vaughan was happy that school had started and the first meeting for Key Club will be held on Tuesday September 10.

Greg Roberts was happy that the Ridge Girls Choir is having a concert on September 22 at the Presbyterian Church.

John Wright was happy that his granddaughter Leslee had her first day at school, and also happy that Kori is joining Kiwanis.

Bill Jonhston was happy that all the buses were running well and had a good start to the year.

John Case was happy that baseball season is over and he is back at Kiwanis.

Brad Carnie was happy that a young chap did not like his singing.

Jennifer Dunlop was happy that she is now a G2 driver.

Jenn Vaughan had a sad dollar because she had to go back to work.

Larry Rumble was very happy that we had a good turn out to our first meeting at the church.

Mystery Handshake

Alan Gillard paid the fine because he could not remember who did not shake his hand.

Wine Draw

Keith Hamilton

Vice President Karolyn Ure informed the club about our new fundraiser "Shop and Share" she gave out a list of companies from which we can buy things and then in turn our club will receive a percentage of the sales. She will have a presentation in the future.

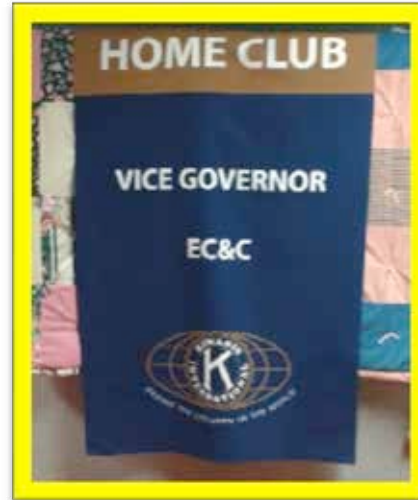

Turn your committee volunteer sheets into President Elect Brian Dunlop, if you have not already done so.

Karolyn also presented the Vice Governors Banner to our club. We are the first home club of the first Vice Governor. Congratulations to our very own Vice Governor for Eastern Canada and the Caribbean Allen Ure.

Induction of New Member

We are very pleased to welcome Kori Wright as the newest member of the Ridgetown Kiwanis Club. Kori is married to Krystal and they have two children Leslee and Kaitlyn. Kori is a local businessman owning Wrights Towing and Repairs along with his father John. John is a long standing member of our club. John and his wife Janice were present for Kori's induction. Kori is a former member of the Ridgetown Kiwanis Key Club. He has been involved in our Down Hill Derby for many years. We are happy to welcome him and wish him many successful years in Kiwanis.

The Kiwanis Club of Ridgetown meets weekly at 6:30 pm in the basement of Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, 59 Main St. E., Ridgetown, every Thursday, from September 1st through June 30th each year. Summer meetings are hosted by members at various local addresses.
